

Marital Use of Lips, Mouth, and Tongue

“Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.”
Song of Solomon 1:2

“Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.”
Song of Solomon 4:11

Introduction:

1. This topic is so important that it may take a few weeks to properly learn and apply the Bible’s wisdom.
2. There is an oral technique that will blow your spouse’s mind and cause him or her to shout with joy.
3. It is true great lovers know how to use their lips, mouths, and tongues to win and overwhelm a spouse.
4. You are not born with this knowledge, and it must be taught, so we will let the Bible be your manual.
5. Many, especially men, will think a lesson in better oral sexual technique must be at hand. Yes, and no!
6. Your lips, mouth, and tongue can affect your marriage, including sex, far more by the noise they make.
7. Kisses are nothing, and can be irritating, only perfunctory pecks, without romantic words around them.
8. Men and women are won, loved, kept, and thrilled by words said to them. How good are you orally?

THE FACT OF LIFE

- A. Forget ... the facts of life ... or the birds and the bees ... idioms for sexual instruction.
- B. You need ... the fact of life ... to enhance your love, romance, and marriage pleasure.
 1. Dale Carnegie taught, “The sweetest sound in any language is a person’s own name.”
 2. Solomon, philosopher and practical teacher, stressed good speech as crucial wisdom.
- C. It is a sure fact that both men and women are greatly affected by words spoken to them.
 1. Men are achievers, and they need it recognized by a woman who reverences them.
 2. Women are made for men and need verbal reassurance, sex is more words than act.
 3. Men that expect sex without words misuse their wives and turn good into cruelty.
- D. Seduction is achieved easily and most often by speech and words than any other ways.
 1. Learned men know the ‘L’ word is the fastest way to win a woman for good or bad.
 2. Wise parents limit their daughter’s communication and warn about oral seduction.
 3. Words are the most powerful tool a woman has for love, not her body or its offer, especially if a real relationship or love is the goal, not mere mating like animals.
 4. Think about ... texts, calls, emails, notes, cards, whispers, adoration, promises, etc.
 5. Never before, not even close, can a person send/receive words with any other person.
- E. Rejection and hurt and pain are also accomplished quickly and lastingly by words said.
 1. Love, joy, hope, and peace are replaced by pain by cruel, critical, or resisting speech.
 2. Women have their souls sliced by comparisons, criticisms, negativity, and harshness.
 3. Men have been broken, hurt, neutered, and angered by saucy, nagging resistance.
 4. Judging by appearance sees the man’s reaction, but misses the woman’s provocation.
- F. Words are incredibly powerful, and how they are presented can enhance them further.
 1. Attentive, kind, loving words can fill the soul with love and joy to respond strongly.
 2. Cruel, harsh, critical, negative, saucy, sarcastic, resisting words can crush the spirit.
 3. Logical discussions as if everything were black and white with criticism is hopeless.

- G. Think about this for enough seconds or minutes to grasp the romantic power of speech.
 1. Harsh words during the day ... yet expecting passionate sex at night ... is violence.
 2. Criticism of a husband, no matter how minor, is part why he is not the man you wish.
 3. Resisting a husband is like speaking evil of dignities or despising dominion. Beware!
- H. Communication may be the most important factor for maximizing love and marriage.
 1. The lack of communication causes so many problems that could easily be solved.
 2. Critical, harsh, negative, and other abusive communication causes many problems.
 3. Withholding information is cruel and counterproductive and not friendly (Jn 15:15).
- I. Some are born to monsters or witches; some never have a cruel spirit or speech crushed.
 1. They are raised like junkyard dogs – hearing and seeing conflict that perverts love.
 2. They are not lovers by emotional / social genes, habits, ignorance. Learn divine truth.
 3. They think their speech okay by habit, sinful lusts, or their vile concept of principle.
 4. They want others to accept them as they are; God demands you be what He expects.
 5. By nature you will never speak right or righteous, so it must be taught and embraced.
- J. You can change your speech ... today ... by the power of God’s Spirit and His words.
 1. Your spouse hopes you will change, because of the pain they have never told you.
 2. We hope you will change, because we can see your spouse’s face and countenance.
 3. If saved, you have God’s Spirit for the power and His word for plenty of wisdom.
- K. You better change your speech ... today ... for God will judge now and/or later for it.
 1. You do not have any right to continue your foolish and sinful habits – repent today.
 2. You lose by being the selfish, stubborn spouse you are, and you cost others. Beware!
 3. Do not wait for your spouse to change, selfish. Change yourself to change a spouse.
- L. No two people are alike – every snowflake is different – so you must learn two people.
 1. First, you must learn yourself, that you have temperamental faults that are noxious.
 2. Second, you must learn your spouse temperamentally, so you respond as they desire.
 3. The combination of two selfish souls requires sacrificial desire for the other’s best.
 4. The combination of two selfish souls resulting in sinful passion or pleasure is lust.
- M. They say, Familiarity breeds contempt, and we know there is an element of truth to it.
 1. It is a shame most spouses address each other with less carefulness than any others.
 2. Avoiding this requires a very conscientious and dedicated effort to exalt your spouse.
 3. Such a conscience and dedication comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God.

THE BIBLE ABOUT SPEECH IN GENERAL

- A. When the Bible teaches speech in general for good or evil, we will apply it to marriage.
- B. Consider a few of Solomon’s warnings about speech in the book of prudence, Proverbs.

1. Froward is naughty and wicked (6:12)	22. Joy and good with exclamation (15:23)
2. Hate froward words (8:13)	23. Speaking right delights kings (16:13)
3. Blessings or violence (10:6)	24. Sweet to soul and health to bones (16:24)
4. Well of life or violence (10:11)	25. Burning fire (16:27)
5. Destruction or life (10:14)	26. Lips bring evil to pass (16:30)
6. Refraining is wisdom (10:19)	27. Finds no good; falls into mischief (17:20)
7. Choice silver or little worth (10:20)	28. Less is more (17:28)

8. Wisdom or should be cut out (10:31)	29. Deep water and flowing brook (18:4)
9. Acceptable or forward (10:32)	30. Contention and strokes (18:6)
10. Hypocrites destroy (11:9)	31. Destruction and snare (18:7)
11. Overthrow the relationship (11:11)	32. Satisfied and filled (18:20)
12. Lie in wait for blood (12:6)	33. Death or life (18:21)
13. Create a snare or avoid trouble (12:13)	34. Devours iniquity (19:28)
14. Satisfied with good (12:14)	35. Precious jewel (20:15)
15. Sword or health (12:18)	36. Soul without trouble (21:23)
16. Lift a heavy heart and make it glad (12:25)	37. Gracious is friendly (22:11)
17. Eat good or violence (13:2)	38. Worthy of kiss on lips (24:26)
18. Keep life or destroy it (13:3)	39. Soft tongue breaks bones (25:15)
19. Preservation or rod of pride (14:3)	40. Potsherd with silver dross (26:23)
20. Knowledge aright or pour out folly (15:2)	41. Hatred and ruin (26:28)
21. Tree of life or breach in the spirit (15:4)	42. Rebuke trumps flattery (28:23)

- C. James saw a fire (3:5-6), world of iniquity (3:6), defiles the whole body (3:6), sets on fire the course of nature (3:6), set on fire of hell (3:6), untamable (3:7), unruly evil (3:8), full of deadly poison (3:8), bless God and curse spouse (3:9), sweet and bitter (3:11).
- D. Let us raise just a few more of the many warnings in the Bible about speech in general.
1. Remember, the warnings may be general, but they surely apply to you and marriage.
 2. If you are a wife, do not answer again, just like your husband does not (Titus 2:9).
 3. Let your speech as a Christian spouse always be gracious (Colossians 4:6; Ec 10:12).
 4. You shall give account of every idle word, including in your marriage (Matt 12:36).
 5. A spouse offended is harder to be won than a walled city (Proverbs 18:19; Col 3:19).
 6. A friendly spouse tells all; an enemy in your bed withholds (John 15:15; I Sam 18:1).
 7. Name-calling without a tsunami of godly cause is murder (Matt 5:21-26; I Pet 3:9).
 8. Quick, retorting speech is stupid and wrong (Prov 14:29; 29:20; Eccl 7:9; Jas 1:19)
 9. Dutiful or willing is not cheerfulness or passion and unacceptable (Mal 1:6-14; S.S.).
 10. Foolish talking or jesting is not martially convenient (Pr 10:23; 26:19; Eph 5:3-5).
- E. Your words are either life or death, pleasure or pain, health or poison to your spouse.
- F. What are you going to do about it? Everyone can do better. Change your wicked habits.
- G. Embrace the lovemaking power of your lips, mouth, and tongue by passionate words.

THE BIBLE ABOUT SPEECH FOR LOVE

- A. How did Shechem win Dinah? He spake kindly to the damsel (Gen 34:3). This is basic!
1. This is the same way that men have won maids throughout human history (Pr 30:19).
 2. Kind. Naturally well-disposed; having a gentle, sympathetic, or benevolent nature; ready to assist, or show consideration for, others; generous, liberal, courteous.
 3. The Bible gives other examples of kind, comforting speech (II Sam 19:7; Hos 2:14).
 4. This is how a man seduces or wins a woman; we only mean this virtuously for good.
 5. Protect Dinah from kind Shechems ... <http://www.letgodbetrue.com/pdf/protecting-our-daughters.pdf>.
- B. How does a woman seduce a man? And though used for sin, the examples are powerful.
1. Adulteresses and whores seduce men by flattery (Prov 2:16; 5:3; 6:24; 7:5; 22:14).
 2. A woman's words have great power, not just her body (Pr 7:21-22,26 cp Pr 7:15,18).

- C. Remember ... the fact of life ... now you have your experience confirmed by scripture.
 1. Any man can win a woman, or vice versa, by gently using kind and adoring words.
 2. Because we are Christians, this power and skill is only to be used for and in marriage.
 3. Never before, not even close, can a person send/receive words with any other person.
- D. Note how poor speech, harsh or irritating words, can cost men and women everything.
 1. How can a beauty queen be a 2000 lb. filthy, grunting, and stinking sow (Pr 11:22)?
 2. What can the world not stand, regardless of shape, hair, or makeup (Prov 30:21-23)?
 3. What can a man do to lose his wife, his life, then his wife to his enemy (I Sam 25)?

BIBLE RULES & EXAMPLES

- A. Wives must revere husbands; it is no suggestion; it is God's rule for you (Eph 5:33).
 1. One of the easiest ways – what you should do with parents and bosses – is by words.
 2. God chose Sarah's example for it – my lord – in her heart (I Peter 3:5-6; Gen 18:12).
 3. For much more about I Peter 3:5-6 ... <http://www.letgodbetrue.com/pdf/first-peter-three.pdf>.
 4. Nagging, resisting, explaining is toxic, not helpful (Pr 19:13; 21:1,19; 25:24; 27:15).
 5. Check out Proverb commentaries ... http://www.letgodbetrue.com/proverbs/commentaries/19_13.php.
- B. Husbands must honor wives; it is not a suggestion; it is God's rule for you (I Peter 3:6).
 1. One of the easiest ways – what you should do with parents and bosses – is by words.
 2. Knowledgeable men know it, because of her weakness; she is your equal to God.
 3. For much more about I Peter 3:7 ... <http://www.letgodbetrue.com/pdf/first-peter-three.pdf>.
 4. Lord! Think about your pet hind and pleasant roe (Pr 5:19). How do you treat her?
 5. For more about Proverbs 5:19 ... http://www.letgodbetrue.com/proverbs/commentaries/05_19.php.
- C. A wife is to obey and submit her desire to her husband (Gen 3:16; Tit 2:5; Ep 5:22-24).
 1. These verses and the rules for wives are inspired from heaven, so how will you talk?
 2. Think the military. How should privates speak to sergeants? Sergeants to captains?
 3. Think family. How should your child think and talk about you in private or public?
 4. Think rulers. How does a man, or how would he, address the governor or president?
 5. Violations of language protocol bring anger, bitterness, and revenge. It is your fault!
- D. A husband is to cherish and nourish his wife to make her a glorious wife (Eph 5:25-29).
 1. These verses and rules for husbands are inspired from heaven, so how will you talk?
 2. To nourish a person is to provide the words, support, and opportunities to flourish.
 3. To cherish a person is to treat them as very special and worthy of doting affection.
 4. To love your wife as yourself is to be excessively protective and ambitious for her.
 5. To give yourself for your wife is to spare no cost, effort, or time to make her perfect.

SONG OF SOLOMON

- A. God inspired a book of marital passion to describe romantic love no matter how applied.
- B. Both spouses say much about each other, but they also said many things to each other.
 1. True love speaks as glowingly about the person they picked from the whole world.
 2. True love speaks as glowingly about the person they picked for its seductive power.
 3. No one is perfect, but loves means you overlook imperfection to exalt the positive.

- B. She spoke to him ... 1:3 ... all the women love you ... 1:7 ... no one compares to you.
- C. He spoke to her ... 1:8 ... fairest among women ... 1:9 ... you are like a stunning thing.
- D. She spoke to him ... 2:16 ... you are mine; I am yours ... 2:17 ... make love all night.
- E. He spoke to her ... 2:10 ... my love, let's get away ... 2:14 ... let me see and hear you.
- F. She spoke ... 3:1 ... I want him in bed ... 3:4 ... I would not let him go until fully happy.
- G. He spoke ... 4:1 ... you are totally beautiful ... 4:7 ... body, face, and hair are perfect 4:9 ... you overwhelm my heart with love ... 4:10 ... making love with you is exquisite!
- H. She spoke ... 4:16 ... take all you want, babe ... 5:4 ... my stomach turns for him ...
5:8 ... I am sick with need for his love ... 5:16 ... he is perfectly lovely in every way.
- I. He spoke ... 6:9 ... there is no one like her ... 6:13 ... hurry home, I want to see you
... 7:1 ... the curves of your hips are fabulous ... 7:6 ... your body blows my mind!
- J. She spoke ... 7:10 ... I am his; he wants me ... 8:1 ... I wish I could take you anywhere.
- K. They are madly in love with each other with raging passion that transcends all (8:6-7).
- L. She is an adoring, aggressive, erotic, flattering, initiating, praising, passionate, and romantic lover ... with words ... making herself available for him or chasing him down.
- M. He matches her every verbal way, doting with encouraging comparisons and superlative praise for her appearance in the details, her eyes, her speech, her lovemaking, etc.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION

- A. If a wife would never talk back, like employees never talking back, life could be sweet.
 - 1. All she must do is practice simple Bible duties of obedience, submission, reverence.
 - 2. If she would give him the attention she gives to a boss or boss's boss, it would work.
 - 3. Answering again is a terrible cause of conflict, bitterness, and then revenge (Tit 2:9).
 - 4. The Bible puts a woman's submission first because it is critically necessary to start.
 - 5. Every wife that makes her husband's job difficult will answer for it now and later.
- B. If your husband attempts to be Manager of Conflict Resolution, you should help him.
 - 1. A man should lead the event with gentleness and love controlling the confrontation.
 - 2. A wife should respond with great humility, receptiveness, and cooperation to settle.
 - 3. Her husband has the right to follow-up and expect a wife's compliance or enforce it.
 - 4. Every wife that makes her husband's job difficult will answer for it now and later.
 - 5. Some understate in confrontation; others overstate; wise women react accordingly.

A FEW IDEAS

What should a man stop thinking?

That she can read your mind.	I will tell her how to think.	Words are not very important.
That she thinks at all like you.	Her desires/opinions are wrong.	She should know me by now.
That logical explanations help.	I do not need her contribution.	I can let my hair down at home.
That you can force love/respect.	She already knows I love her.	That she is used to poor treatment.
That she accepts your faults/sins.	She knows I appreciate her.	That she accepts you just as you are.
That a Bible lesson will cure all.	She knows I think her body ok.
That engineers have love skills.	She knows I am thankful for her.
I told her exactly what I wanted.	Sex with me needs no words.

What could a man say to his wife?

I love you.	What would you like to do?	I am glad you are my wife.
I am sorry.	I was wrong.	I want to learn you better.
You are gorgeous.	You were right.	No one else has what I have.
I miss you.	I'm listening.	You look, feel like a teenager.
What are you thinking?	Let me get that for you.	Wow!
Thank you.	I need you.	How was your day?
Where would you like to go?	You only in the world matter.	I handled it.
How would you like it tonight?	You are an amazing woman.	You are more than enough for me.

What could a woman say to her husband?

I love you.	You are a great leader.	You look awesome in that.
I need you.	I admire you.	Our bed is my favorite place ever.
I miss you.	I feel safe with you.	I am sorry.
I adore you.	You were right. I was wrong.	I forgive you. Forget it.
I thank God for you.	I am sorry for ever resisting you.	I love doing anything with you.
You are the best man I know.	I appreciate all you do for us.	You still take my breath away.
I am the happiest woman alive.	I am glad I married you.	You are the world's best lover.
I trust you.	You are an awesome man of God	I am happy just being with you.
