THINGS TO THINK ABOUT:

Three of the seven sayings of Jesus from the cross are in this chapter. He addressed His mother and John by saying, "Woman, behold thy son! Behold thy mother!" thereby committing the care of Mary to that disciple. He said, "I thirst," as He nears the end of His redemptive sufferings. Then He declared, "It is finished!" and I believe it was with the loud voice mentioned in Luke 23:46a. What was finished? His success as the Lamb of God who was bearing away our sins (Jo 1:29). His sufferings for our transgressions and iniquities (Isa 53:5). His silence before His tormentors and executioners (Isa 53:7). His separation from His Father because of bearing our sin (Mt 27:46). His experience of being made sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him (2 Cor 5:21). His one sacrifice for sins whereby He hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified (Heb 10:12-14). His triumph over principalities and powers (Col 2:15).

Can you see Him dying in your stead? Do you see the sinfulness of all your sins in His sufferings in your place? Have you renounced all known sins to obey Him? Are you doing everything He has revealed to be His will for you?
