Ephesians 5:22

He that regardeth the day,
regardeth it unto the Lord;
and he that regardeth not the day,
to the Lord he doth not regard it.
He that eateth, eateth to the Lord,
for he giveth God thanks;
and he that eateth not,
to the Lord he eateth not,
and giveth God thanks.

Romans 14:6

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord;
and whether we die, we die unto the Lord:
whether we live therefore, or die,
we are the Lord's.

Romans 14:8

For ye were sometimes darkness,
but now are ye light in the Lord:
walk as children of light:
(For the fruit of the Spirit
is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)
Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

Ephesians 5:8-10

Children, obey your parents in all things:
for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

Colossians 3:20

And the King shall answer
and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren,
ye have done it unto me.

How about civil government and
employment in one passage?

As unto the Lord

Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man
for the Lord's sake....

For so is the will of God,

that with well doing ye may put to silence
the ignorance of foolish men:

As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

I Peter 2:13-16

Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear;
not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God

endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer
for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

Colossians 3:20

Servants, obey in all things
your masters according to the flesh;
not with eyeservice, as menpleasers;
but in singleness of heart, fearing God:
And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily,
as to the Lord, and not unto men;
Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive
the reward of the inheritance:
for ye serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:22-24

Servants, be obedient to them
that are your masters according to the flesh,
with fear and trembling,
in singleness of your heart,
as unto Christ;

Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers;
but as the servants of Christ,
doing the will of God from the heart;
With good will doing service,
as to the Lord, and not to men:

Ephesians 6:5-7

Art thou called being a servant? care not for it:
but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

For he that is called in the Lord,
being a servant, is the Lord's freeman:
likewise also he that is called,
being free, is Christ's servant.

Three Basic Rules for Maximum Living

“Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God: Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved” (I Cor 10:31-33).

Context (1)

- Why did Paul write these verses? To limit liberty!
- Jews in Corinth despised pagan idols and their meat.
- Gentiles in Corinth did not have scruples of anything.
- The church had both ... some strong ... some weak.
- Your greater knowledge is irrelevant and dangerous.

Context (2)

- Eat or drink? Health or weight? No, pagan sacrifices.
- Protect God's glory by your public conduct.
- Do not offend others no matter their religion.
- Goal is to save them to the truth of Jesus Christ.
- Greater knowledge is risky - their consciences count.
