The Ministry #4: Honor and Preservation

July 20, 1986 · AM · https://letgodbetrue.com/sermons/1986/the-ministry-4-honor-and-preservation/

"Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them" (Psalm 68:18).

"He ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers" (Eph 4:8-11).

The IMPORTANCE OF THE MINISTRY Should Be Understood to Maximize Respect and Desire.

A. Ministers work as officials with delegated authority and responsibility from God and Christ.
   1. Ministers are chosen by Jesus Christ to be His persona! soldiers (Il Timothy 2:3-4).
   2. Ministers are ambassadors of Jesus Christ, Who is the King of kings (Il Corinthians 5:20). 3.
   3. God dwells among His people by His ministers' presence and teaching (Psalm 68:18).

B. The inspired scriptures are given primarily to the minister as the man of God (Il Ti 3:16-17).
   1. The inspiration and profitability of scripture IS to throughly furnish the man of God.
   2. Ministers study doctrine, reprove, correct, and instruct (I Ti 4:11, 13; Il Ti 4:2; TIt 1:13).
   3. God gave ministers for the perfection of the saints, not personal Bibles (Eph 4:11-14).
   4. It IS God's messengers who keep and give knowledge (Neh 8:7-9; Malachi 2:5-9; Jer 3:15).
   5. Christ's ministers are stewards of God's mysteries (I Cor 4:1-2 cp Tit 1:7; I Pet 4:10-11).
   6. Since Paul, Christ is making His ambassadors ministers of the new testament (Il Cor 3:6).
   7. The riches of the gospel go no further than God's ministers carry it (Rom 10:15; 15:16).

C. The kingdom of God in Christ's local churches is furthered by means of HIS ministers.
   1. Ministers labor together with God to build God's house (I Corinthians 3:9 cp Eph 4:12).
   2. A minster's gift and labor will bring growth (Proverbs 4:14; I Cor 15:10; I Timothy 4:15). D.

D. God moved Artaxerxes king of Persia to exempt His ministers from all taxation (Ezra 7:24). E.

E. Ministers should encourage the people to covet the best gifts (I Co 12:31; 14:1,39; Ga 4:18). F.

F. One good minister can save and preserve the Lord's congregation (Hos 12:13 cp Ezek 22:30).

The OFFICE OF THE MINISTRY Must Be Established to Correct Those Who Reject Officers.

A. The congregation or church of Israel had the office of priest (Heb 7:5; Ex 28: l; Num 18:7).

B. Paul's magnified his apostolic office to the churches (Romans 11:13; Il Corinthians 10:8).

C. A bishop is selected out of the congregation to hold office (I Tim 3: l; Ac 1:20 cp Ps 109:8).

D. Deacons are also officers with a formal position of service In the church (I Timothy 3:10, 13).

E. Some will argue that we are all kings and priests (Rev 1:6), therefore no other man should be put in authority over the church. Should we make men and women equal (Galatians 3:28)?

F. Paul plainly teaches the church that not all members have the same office (Romans 12:4-8).

The HISTORY OF THE MINISTRY Should Be Understood to Further Appreciate Its Importance.

A. Before the flood, Noah was God's preacher (Gen 8:20-22; 9:8-17; Heb 11:7; Il Pt 2:5).
B. Before God built the congregation of Israel, Abraham was the minister of God (Gen 20:7).
C. Before God called His church to Canaan, He chose Moses to be their leader and minister.
    1. Judges, officers, or elders were chosen to help (Ex 18:13-26; Num 11:16-17; Deut 16:18).
    2. The priests were chosen to minister In the direct worship of God (Exodus 28: l; Nu 18:7).
    3. The priests were the stewards of God's word (Deut 17:18; Nehemiah 8:7-8; Malachi 2:4-9).
D. Before the crucifixion, Christ promised a transfer of authority to His servants (Mark 13:34).
E. After His resurrection, Christ received and gave gifts to the church (Ep 4:8-11 cp Ps 68:18).
    1. He gave apostles as the foundation of revelation and judgment (Matt 19:28; Luke 22:30).
    2. He gave prophets as the foundation of revelation for the church (I Corinthians 13:8-10).
    3. He gave evangelists as the foundation for spreading the gospel (Acts 8:5 cp Acts 21:8).
    4. He gave pastors for ruling and teaching the church (I Tim 3:3-4; 5:17; Il Tl 2:15; 3:16-17).
    5. While Christ is in heaven, His ministers are His ambassadors (Il Corinthians 5:20).
    6. The apostles are the foundation and pastors the builders with Christ (Eph 2:20; I Co 3:9).
    7. While least esteemed members should be able to rule, pastors rule over them (I Co 6:1-5).

The PROPHECY OF THE MINISTRY Covers Old Testament Passages Describing the Ministry.

A. David prophesied of when the Lord would give give the word to a great company (Ps 68:11).
B. Isaiah prophesied of Christ's ministry and those of the Gentiles to follow Him (Is 61:1-6).
C. Jeremiah prophesied of pastors feeding knowledge among the Gentile nations (Jer 3:14-18).
D. Passages dealing with the building of the church must include ministers (Amos 9:11-15).

The NAMES OF THE MINISTRY Properly Understood Will Save From Rome's False Practices.

A. Bishops and deacons are the two offices in the New Testament (Phil cp I Tim
    1. The office of the bishop is the teaching and ruling office (I Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-11).
    2. An apostle was also considered a bishop (Acts 1:20). Christ is also a Bishop (I Pet 2:25).
    3. Popes, cardinals, patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, and priests are Rome's invention.
B. Pastors are teachers who feed the Lord's congregation with knowledge (Jeremiah 3:15).
    1. Literally a 'feeder, giver of pasture.' l. A herdsman or shepherd.
    2. Pastors are teachers: there are not two gifts of pastor and teacher (Ephesians 4:11).
    3. Pastors are associated with priests, handlers of the law, and prophets (Jeremiah 2:8).
    4. Pastors are responsible for flocks and for seeking God (Jeremiah 10:21 cp 23:1-2).

G. Elder are overseers, which are supervisors In authority over others (I Pet 5:2; Acts 20:28).
H. Teachers are presented in scripture with ruling authority to be obeyed (Heb
I. He is not a lord over God's heritage (I Peter 5:3); he has delegated power from the Lord.
   1. Peter contrasts lording it over God's heritage with being an ensample to the flock.
   2. Nicolaitanism – inordinate hierarchical authority – must be guarded against
J. The authority of elders even included financial authority (Acts 4:34-35; 5:1-11; 11:27-30).
K. In gray areas requiring judgment, the elder's faith should be followed (Hebrews 13:7).
   1. Certain offences are left to the ruler's judgment: attendance, modesty, effeminacy, etc.
   2. In controversies, the priest's or judge's decision from the law was final (Deut 17:8-13).
   3. God knew controversies would come between law and commandment (Il Chr 19:8-11).
   4. God's ministers should scripturally distinguish between holy and profane (Eze 44:23-24).
   5. Pastors are to be an example and pattern of good works (I Tim 4:12; Tit 2:7; I Pet 5:3).
L. There is no distinction between ruling and teaching elders: God's elders do both well.
   1. Elders that rule well and labor in the word are to be considered honorable (I Tim 5:17).
   2. Obedience and submission are to be given those who speak the word of God (He 13:7,13). M. Some may argue that pastors are servants (Il Co 4:5). Yet civil rulers are "public servants." N. Even though ministers may fail themselves sometimes, they are to be obeyed (Matt 23:1-3).

The PLURALITY OF THE MINISTRY Is an Often Confused Subject On Which Many Argue.

A. Many cases show a definite plurality (Acts 14:23; 20:17; Phil l: l; Titus 1:5; James 5:14).

B. However, scripture does not require a plurality and implies the singularity of the office.
   1. The qualifications of one elder are distinguished from several deacons (I Timothy 3:1-8). 2. The elder must rule his own family well, which is not shared authority (I Timothy 3:4-5).
   2. Christ wrote to the angel (singular) of the seven churches of Asia (Re 2:1 cp Ac 20:17).
   3. The size of the New Testament churches may easily have required additional elders.

C. Even where there is plurality, there cannot be equality by definition and example.
   1. If there IS equality among many elders, who is to be the ruler of the congregation?
   2. James ruled at the Jerusalem Church (Acts 8:14; 12:17; 15:13; 21:18; Gal 1:19; 2:12.

The INDEPENDENCE OF THE MINISTRY Is the Authority Relationship Between Elders.

A. A single minister is qualified to form churches and ordain elders by himself (Titus 1:5).
   1. Restrictions on this authority have done great damage in intimidating ministers.
   2. Associationism and denominationalism are two practical errors that often lead to this.

B. Ministers are accountable to no one but the Lord (I Corinthians 4:1-4 cp Galatians 2:1-9).
   1. Deacons are not elders, and they have neither authority nor responsibility for the elder.
   2. Though ministerial fathers are appreciated, they must be left when it comes to doctrine.

C. If a church has more than one elder, only one can truly fulfill the office of the bishop.

D. However, ministers may have a profitable ministerial fellowship together (Il Timothy 1:1-6).

The HONOUR OF THE MINISTRY Is the Personal Conduct of Members Toward Their Pastor.

A. Murmuring against God's minister is murmuring against God Himself (Ex 16:1-10; I Sam 8:7).
   1. Aaron and Miriam learned not to speak against God's minister – Moses (Num 12:1-15).
   2. Forty-two children learned not to mock or ridicule God's man – Elisha (Il Kings 2:23-24).

B. The elders of Bethlehem trembled at Samuel's presence to anoint David (I Samuel 16:4).

C. The apostles were magnified in their work, and no one presumed to join them (Ac 5:12-16).
   1. The Jews well understood the importance of honoring God's office (Num 17:10-13; 18:7).
   2. The Galatians received Paul as an angel of God or as Jesus Christ (Galatians 4:12-16).

D. Ministers are to be highly esteemed in love for their work's sake (I Thessalonians 5:12-13).
   1. They are to be accounted or reckoned as the ministers of Jesus Christ (I Cor 4: l).
   2. Knowing a minister is an intimate awareness and appreciation for him, not cognizance.
   3. Esteeming him highly is appreciating and respecting the work he must do in his office.
   4. Paul sought greater love from the Corinthians for his love of them (Il Cor 6:11-13).
   5. Ministers are to be had in reputation and received with all gladness (Philippians 2:29).

6. They should not be taken for granted nor easily forgotten at any time (Hebrews 13:7).

E. A minister's age should not affect the honour he receives (I Tim 4:12 cp I Cor 16:10-11).
F. The double honour due diligent elders is financial compensation (I Tim 5:17 cp
G. An elder IS not to be accused without two or three witnesses (I Tim 5:19 cp Matt 18:15).
H. We should remember the debt we owe for receiving spiritual things (I Co 3: 5; Ro 15:26-27).

C. Incentive compensation is to be based on the ministers ruling and studying (I Timothy 5:17).
D. A God-given gift plus member-provided time will bear fruit (Proverbs 14:4 cp I Tim 4:15).

The PRESERVATION OF THE MINISTRY Covers the Duties for Keeping a Godly Ministry.

A. Obedience to God's minsters is essential to avoid a famine of God's words (Amos 8:11-12).
   1. This famine can result from the removal of the ministers themselves (Ezekiel 33:30-33).
   2. This famine can result from God removing ability from the ministers (Isaiah 29:9-14).
   3. There is no better way to encourage your pastor than to obey his teaching (Phi 2:12-17).
B. Prayer should be made for God's ministers in their labors (Eph 6:18-19; Col 4:3; Il Ths 3:1).
C. Reproving one another and judging small matters spares the pastor (Matt 18:15; I Cor 6:5).
D. Use the pastor's time as if everyone else used it the same way. Would he be overburdened?
E. Communicate freely With your pastor so that he may readily know the state of your soul.
   1. Holding problems inside increases pastoral burdens; it does not make his job easier.
   2. He is given to oversee and correct problems; if he cannot bear it, you need a new one.

The WORK OF THE MINISTRY Are the Duties and Responsibilities of the Minister's Office.

A. It is a work. It is not for the slothful at all (I Tim 3: l; Eph 4:12; I Cor 3:13-15; 16:10).
   1. Ministers are called labourers (Lk 10:2; I Cor 3:9) and workmen (Il Tim 2:15; Mt 10:10).
   2. It is not an easy work. It Involves hardness (Il Timothy 2:3) and afflictions (Il Tim 4:5).
   3. Ministers should provide an example of diligence and labour to their flock (Il Ths 3:7-9).
B. There are three principle aspects of the ministry he is to be dedicated to (I Timothy 4:13).

1. READING is the studying and preparation that precedes effective teaching (Il Tim 4:13).
    a. A minister is to laboriously study the word of God (I Timothy 5:17; Il Timothy 2:15).
    b. While God did call fishermen, He also gave them the gift of prophecy (Acts 4:13).
    c. Though the scriptures are primarily for the man of God, he must read them to profit.
    d. Paul used other books and learning carefully (Ac 17:28; Tit 1:12; Il Ti 2:16; He 13:9).
2. EXHORTATION is the commanding, reproving, and rebuking to obedience of good works.
    a. Exhort :To admonish earnestly; to urge by stimulating words to conduct regarded as laudable. Admonish. To put (a person) in mind of duties; to counsel against wrong practices; to give authoritative or warning advice; to exhort, to warn.
    b. Paul told Titus to constantly affirm believers Ln maintaining good works (Titus 3:8).
    c. This will often involve a considerable amount of reminding (I Tim 4:6; Il Pet l : 12-15).
    d. Being instant in and out of season is being a good exhorter at all times (Il Tim 4:2).
3. DOCTRINE is the objective instruction in the knowledge of God and the scriptures.
    a. Doctrine: The action of teaching or Instructing; instruction; a piece of Instruction, lesson, precept. That which is taught. 3. A body or system of principles or tenets.
    b. Pastors are for establishing the faith, knowledge, and doctrine of Christ (Ep 4:13-14).

F. Prayer must be an important part of a godly minister's duties (Acts 6:4; Il Thess 1:11-12).

The PROBLEMS OF THE MINISTRY Are Often Not Understood or Appreciated By Most.

A. The responsibility to rightly divide the word is often the most pressing problem of all.

B. Paul compared the care of churches within to physical stoning without (Il Cor 11:23-30).
    1. The average member sees little beyond h1S own problems and ministerial requirements.

2. As with strict parents, a faithful pastor will be disliked for his love (Il Cor 12:15).

C. He cannot prefer one before another or show partiality in the congregation (I Tim 5:21).
D. Study was described by Solomon as much weariness of the flesh (Ecclesiastes 12:12).
E. He cannot share his ministerial problems. A faithful wife is important (I Timothy 3:12).
F. Many of his personal abilities or interests in the world must be forgotten (Il Tim 2:3-4).
G. The demands on his time and emotions often leave little left for his own family needs.
H. He is expected to not have the "bad" days or discouragement that others often experience.

The GIFT OF THE MINISTRY Is the Ability and Office Given By God to His Ministers.

A. The spoils of victory for Christ's resurrection included gifts (Psalm 68: 18 cp Eph 4:7-11).
B. The ability which qualifies one for God's service is the first aspect of the gift from Christ.
    1. Not all men can teach; God distinguishes by ability (I Cor 4:7; Rom 12:4-6; I Pt 4:10-11).
    2. God gives responsibilities commensurate with ability to His servants (Matt 25:14-30).
C. The office in which the qualified one serves is the second aspect of the gift from Christ.
    1. The office of priest was given to the Levites as a gift (Numbers 18:7 cp Hebrews 5:4).
    2. Paul considered his apostolic office to have been given him (Romans 1:5; 15:15-16).
D. The ability and office – treasure – is given to men to reveal God's power (Il Cor 4:7).
E. Timothy was given the authority – gift – by his ordination (I Tim 1:18; 4:14; Il Tim

The CALLING OF THE MINISTRY Is a Frequently Misunderstood Concept Creating Confusion.

A. It is usually assumed to be some heard or unheard voice creating intense desire for a work.
    1. Isaiah was called by an audible voice after seeing a vision of God (Isaiah 6:1-10).
    2. Paul was called audibly by the Spirit to a special work (Acts 13:2) and place (16:10).
B. Paul uses the word "calling" reference to a man's vocational position (I Cor 7:17-24).
    1. A gift for a vocation is known by the abilities it brings, though It may be improved.
    2. A gift will also carry more than bare ability; it will carry an appropriate desire.
C. The call of the ministry is generally the appointment of a man to a ministerial office.
    1. Aaron was called of God to be a priest (Heb 5:4), and he was appointed such (Num 3:10).
    2. Paul was called (Rom 1:1; I Cor l : l; Gal 1:15) and appointed (Il Tim 1:11) to his work.
    3. Jesus Christ was appointed (Heb 3:1-2) and called (Heb 5:14) to be the great High Priest.
    4. God's call or appointment is known by ability or the meeting of the qualifications.
        a. Bezaleel was called of God to a work by the ability God gave him (Exodus 31:1-6).
        b. However, there was a desire associated with his God-given ability (Exodus 36:1-2).
        c. Moses is also said to have called Bezaleel (Exodus 36:2). This is the practical call.
        d. Ordination, as we shall see, is the external and practical confirmation of God's call.

The DESIRE OF THE MINISTRY Is the Attitude of Those Seeking and In the Ministry.

A. A bishop's office IS a good work to desire (I Tim 3: l), but desire does not make an elder.

B. Desire IS not an essential or initial qualification, since It IS not listed as such (I Tim 3:2).
   1. Remember that God promised He would call even the rebellious to the work (Ps 68:18).
   2. Neither Moses (Ex 3:11; 4:10, 13) nor Jeremiah (Jer 1:6) desired the work of the ministry.
   3. In some respects, Paul himself did not willingly take the apostleship (I Cor 9:16-17).
   4. Yet when it comes to oversight, a man must have a willing attitude (I Peter 5:2).

C. Willingness is commanded, not required as a qualification. Note cheerfulness (Il Cor 9:7).

D. Paul did teach the Corinthians to covet the best gifts – which is teaching (I Cor 12:28-31).

The QUALIFICATIONS OF THE MINISTRY Are the Necessary Prerequisites Before Ordination.

A. PERSONAL QUALIFICATIONS are those that deal with a man's personal conversation.
   1. It must be remembered that qualifications are a present tense consideration, not past.
      a. Otherwise what would we do with Paul: he did not practice hospitality (Ac 26:9-11).
      b. The time of the qualifications particularly concerns the proving period (I Tim 3:10).
   2. Since a bishop IS greater than a deacon, a deacons qualifications must exist in a bishop.
      a. Arguing from the lesser to the greater is scriptural (Matthew 7:9-11; 10:29-31).
      b. Observe how family rule and alcoholic temperance is required of the two offices.
   3. He must be bold (Ezekiel 2:6) and stubborn (Ezekiel 3:8-9) in resisting wickedness.
   4. He must be able to endure great and frequent afflictions (Il Corinthians 6:3-5).
   5. He Will be an extremely zealous man with tendencies of "workaholisrn" (I Cor 16:15).
   6. He must be blameless in character without open and gross deficiencies (I Ti 3:2; Tit 1:7).
      a. Obviously, no minister is blameless if his past is considered. This is a present case.
      b. No man IS without Sin. However, men may be without obvious public weaknesses.
   7. He must be the husband of one wife (I Timothy 3:2; Titus 1:6).
      a. This is not a requirement for marriage, but marriage to only one Wife at a time.
      b. Consider carefully the present tense construction: 'I A bishop then must "BE
      c. The restriction exemplifies God's ideal of monogamy by HIS ministers (Matt 19:4-6).
